DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-26 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 of U.S. Patent No. 6,602,135.

Art Unit: 3713

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant application's claims claiming an additional feature of a "game activated by a wager"; "primary wagering game" and the like, to which it would have been obvious to incorporate a game into the claimed inventions of claims 1-26 of the instant patent because both sets of inventions are within the gaming arts and thus it is quite common to have a form of wagering in the gaming system.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the priority claim data needs to be updated in the first paragraph of the instant specification and the cross-reference to related application data needs to be updated as well (located in the second paragraph of the instant specification).

Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-46 are allowable over the prior art of record within the instant application.
